
Ada C. McKenzie

Ada C. McKenzie

Ada McKenzie was born July 11, 1903 in Bottineau, ND, passed away February 7, 2003.

She attended public schools in North Dakota and graduated from the University of North Dakota.

She leaves two nieces, Patricia McKenzie of Minneapolis, MN, and Katharine Kuntz of Rochester, MI; nephew Jon C. McKenzie of Fairfax, VA; and several grandnieces and grandnephews.

After teaching in Bottineau and Minot, ND, she came to Washington in 1943 and taught one year in Marsyville. She taught English and French at Everett High School until her retirement in 1968.

She was a member of the Washington Education and Retired Teachers Associations, Alpha Phi, Providence Hospital Auxiliary, Chapter E T of PEO, and St. Anne's Guild of Immaculate conception Church.

Friends wishing may make remembrances to Immaculate Conception School, Providence Foundation or charity of your choice. The funeral will be held in Immaculate Conception Church at 10:00 am on Wednesday February 12, 2003. A vigil will be held before the funeral service.

Published in The Herald (Everett) on February 9, 2003
