
MILDRED LOUISE PRINGLE

Mildred Louise Pringle
Dec. 16, 1919-April 7, 2009

Mildred was born on Lookout Mountain, Georgia. She married and moved to Everett teaching school in Marysville, WA, and then at Lowell Elementary in Everett for 25 years.

After retiring from teaching Mildred moved to Sun City, Arizona and then back to her home on Lookout Mountain in Georgia. During retirement she continued to devote time to service serving as a Deacon in her church, as a local Chapter President of American Assn. of University Women, and volunteering at her local hospital contributing over 4000 hours of service. She pursued her love of music throughout her life singing in church choirs and the Harmonettes.

Survivors include her daughter, Kathleen Pringle, of Atlanta; her son, Robert Pringle (Tina), of Redmond, WA; granddaughter, Shannon Hitch (Steve); grandson, Bradley Pringle (Deborah), of Seattle, WA; and two great-grandsons, Robert and Jamison Hitch, of Redmond.

Services and burial took place on Lookout Mountain, Georgia on April 11, 2009.

Memorial contributions may be made to New Salem United Methodist Church, 12550 Highway 136, New Salem Community, Rising Fawn, GA 30738.
